

POSITION DESCRIPTION

Position Title:	Disabilities Officer
Department:	Student Representative Council (South)
Reporting to:
Classification /Salary:	$TBC pro rata
Date:	24 July 2019

Organisation Description

The TUU is jointly governed by Student Representative Council (SRC) and the Board of Management (BoM). The BoM oversees the basic operations of the TUU, controls its operating activities, is responsible for employing relevant staff, controls the budgets of the union, and acts as the highest point of review for the entire Union, including the SRC. The SRC focuses more on the everyday aspects of student like, particularly educational and welfare advocacy and hosting various events and activities. The TUU provides a wide range of services to students. These services currently include:

- Providing student representation, protecting student rights, and participating in university governance.
- Offering independent student advocates
- Hosting events and concerts.
- Facilitating the operation of the TUU-affiliated student clubs and societies.
- Publishing student-produced media, such as the TUU student magazine, Togatus.

Position Summary

The Disabilities Officer is an autonomous role that implements and coordinates strategies that reduces barriers to educational achievement amongst students with a disability. The Disabilities Officer also provides information for students on contemporary issues related to having a disability, and assists individual students with problems, complaints or grievances they have relating to their full participation as a tertiary student. The Disabilities Officer works on national and campus higher education issues – whether through lobbying of relevant university and government officials, holding events, or assessing student opinion.

The Disabilities Officer may also instigate projects beyond their portfolio, subject to their individual interest and wider Council approval.
