

POSITION DESCRIPTION

Position Title:	Women's Officer
Department:	Student Representative Council (South)
Reporting to:
Classification /Salary:	$TBC pro rata
Date:	24 July 2019

Organisation Description

The TUU is jointly governed by Student Representative Council (SRC) and the Board of Management (BoM). The BoM oversees the basic operations of the TUU, controls its operating activities, is responsible for employing relevant staff, controls the budgets of the union, and acts as the highest point of review for the entire Union, including the SRC. The SRC focuses more on the everyday aspects of student like, particularly educational and welfare advocacy and hosting various events and activities. The TUU provides a wide range of services to students. These services currently include:

- Providing student representation, protecting student rights, and participating in university governance.
- Offering independent student advocates
- Hosting events and concerts.
- Facilitating the operation of the TUU-affiliated student clubs and societies.
- Publishing student-produced media, such as the TUU student magazine, Togatus.

Position Summary

The Women's Officer is responsible for raising welfare issues pertaining to women at the University of Tasmania. The Women's Officer works with the Welfare Officer and the Queer Officer. Maintaining and improving crisis services is an important aspect of this role, however, preventative projects are the main concern of the Women's Officer. The Tasmania University Union takes a proactive, holistic approach to welfare, encompassing projects involving emotional, mental, physical and financial wellbeing.

The Women's Officer may also instigate projects beyond the welfare portfolio, subject to their individual interest and wider Council approval.
