- (f) The same person may not nominate for more than one position of the following positions:
 - i) President
 - ii) Deputy President
 - iii) Postgraduate President
 - iv) Sports President
 - v) Societies President

28. COMMISSION FOR ELECTION

The commission for election shall be authorised by the public officer and addressed to the returning officer. The commission shall list the positions to be filled and request the returning officer to undertake the required election.

29. RETURNING OFFICER

- (a) The Board from time to time shall appoint a person to act as the returning officer of the Association.

- (b) In default of an appointment under rule 29(a) of this constitution the returning officer of the Association shall be the General Manager or some other person appointed by the Board.

30. ELIGIBILITY OF CANDIDATES AND VOTERS

- (a) Each student of the University that meets the enrolment and nomination conditions of the position, as specified in the Regulations, is eligible to be a candidate for the following positions:
- i) President
 - ii) Deputy President
 - iii) Postgraduate President
 - iv) Sports President
 - v) Societies President
- (b) Each student of the University that meets the Regional enrolment and nomination conditions for positions, as specified in the Regulations, based in their Region is eligible to be a candidate for positions in their Region.
- (c) Each enrolled student of the University is eligible to one vote for each vacant position contained in rule 30(a) and other vacant positions in their Region at any election on a day determined by the returning officer.

31. ELECTORAL ROLL

- (a) On request by the returning officer, the Registrar shall provide such returning officer with a roll containing the name, address, Region of enrolment, Enrolment Status and student number of each person eligible to vote in an election.
- (b) It is the duty of the returning officer to make a request pursuant to rule 31(a) of this constitution whenever an electoral roll is required for the purposes of an election.

32. NOMINATIONS

32.1 Nomination period

- (a) The returning officer in an election is to fix the day on which nominations for the election open and the time and day for the close of nominations.
- (b) Nominations are to be open for at least fourteen days.

32.2 Notification of elections

- (a) The returning officer in an election is, no later than fourteen days before the day fixed for the close of nominations, to cause public notice of the election to be placed on the Association's website and campus notice boards in the three regions.
- (b) The public notice is to:

- i) indicate the purpose of the election; and
 - ii) specify the vacancy or vacancies to be filled and call for nominations; and
 - iii) indicate how persons can obtain forms or further information; and
 - iv) contain such other information as the returning officer determines.
- (c) The returning officer may cause such other notice of the election to be given as the returning officer considers necessary or expedient.

32.3 Nomination forms

- (a) The returning officer in an election is to:
- i) prepare a sufficient number of nomination forms to enable the election to take place; and
 - ii) ensure that the forms are available for use on the day the notice referred to in rule 32.1(a) is published.
- (b) Nomination forms for an election are to be prepared and printed in a form approved by the returning officer.

32.4 Nomination of candidates

A person who wishes to nominate as a candidate in an election is to lodge a nomination form with the returning officer. The nomination form:

- (a) is to contain a declaration by the person that he or she is qualified to be a candidate; and
- i) be signed by the person; and
 - ii) be signed by at least two nominators eligible to vote in the election.
- (b) is to be received by the returning officer by the time fixed for the close of nominations.
- (c) may be lodged with the returning officer in person, by post email, containing a scanned image or facsimile transmission ensuring that nomination forms are clearly signed by all parties.

32.5 Acceptance or rejection of nominations

- (d) The returning officer in an election may accept a nomination for the election if satisfied that:
- i) the nomination has been made and lodged in accordance with rule 32.4; and
 - ii) the person nominated is eligible to be a candidate in the election.
- (e) The returning officer must reject a nomination if not satisfied as to the matters specified in rule 32.5 (a).

32.6 Withdrawal of nominations

A candidate in an election may withdraw his or her nomination at any time before the close of nominations by giving notice in writing of the withdrawal to the returning officer.

33. CONDUCT OF BALLOT

33.1 When are ballots required

If, on the close of nominations for an election, the number of nominations accepted by the returning officer is more than the number of positions to be filled at that election or there is one nomination for the positions on Council, the returning officer must conduct a ballot.

33.2 Persons eligible to participate in ballots

A person eligible to vote for a particular election under rule 30 (c), may vote in the Association election to elect a person for that position or positions, as appropriate, on a day determined by the returning officer.

33.3 Form of ballot

- (a) The ballot may be conducted in either paper or electronic form as determined by the returning officer, and
- (b) Shall be a secret ballot
- (c) Subject to this rule, ballot papers for an election are to be prepared in a form approved by the returning officer.
- (d) The order in which the names of candidates are to be listed on the ballot papers is to be drawn by lot.
- (e) A ballot paper is to contain a direction that an elector is to vote for all candidates in the order of the elector's preference.

33.4 Polling period

If a poll is required the returning officer shall fix the day for a poll not less than two weeks after nominations have closed. The poll will be open for a minimum of three consecutive days for at least 7 hours from 10.00 a.m. to 5.00 p.m. on each day.

33.5 Order of Counting

The counting of votes for each position will be conducted in the same order as the order of the positions listed in rule 27(b) of this constitution and in the order listed by regulation for subsidiary councils.

33.6 Ballot papers not to be accepted

The returning officer in an election must not accept a ballot paper that is:

- (a) received by the returning officer after the close of the ballot period; or

- (b) received from a person who is not eligible to vote in the election; or
- (c) received from a person who has already voted in the election.

33.7 Informal ballot papers

- (a) A ballot paper in an election is informal if:
 - i) there is no vote recorded on the ballot paper; or
 - ii) in respect of an election of one position, the elector has not placed the number 1 in the square next to the name of one and only one candidate; or
 - iii) in respect of an election of more than one position, the elector has not marked the ballot paper by placing consecutive numbers without repetition, starting from number 1, in the squares next to the names of at least as many candidates as there are candidates to be elected; or
 - iv) the ballot paper contains a mark or writing which identifies the elector who marked the ballot paper.
- (b) If, on a ballot paper that is otherwise formal under rule 33.7(a), a number is repeated or omitted, the elector's preferences on that ballot paper are to be counted up to but not including that repetition or omission.
- (c) A ballot paper is not to be treated as informal at the counting of votes if, in the opinion of the returning officer, the elector's intention is clearly indicated on the ballot paper.

34. DETERMINATION OF ELECTION RESULT

34.1 Counting of votes

Votes cast at an election are to be counted:

- (a) for General Representative positions on Subsidiary Councils in accordance with Part 2 of Schedule 7 to the Local Government Act 1993; and
- (b) for all other positions, in accordance with Part 3 of Schedule 7 of the Local Government Act 1993.
- (c) Where only one nomination is received or one candidate remains for the following positions, the approval of that candidate by voters is required. A "Yes" or "No" section must be provided on the ballot paper for this purpose:
 - i) President
 - ii) Deputy President
 - iii) Postgraduate President
 - iv) Sports President
 - v) Societies President

- vi) Campus President South
 - vii) Campus President North
 - viii) Campus President Cradle Coast
- (d) Candidates cannot be elected to a position if they have already been elected to a position on the Council that has already been counted. These candidates are to be excluded at the commencement of the scrutiny and their votes passed on to the next available candidate.
- (e) If after counting of votes for positions on the Council, no candidates remain for one or more positions on a Regional Council, a by-election must be held to fill these vacancies, at a time determined by the returning officer.

34.2 Scrutineers

- (a) A candidate in an election may appoint a person who is not a candidate to be a scrutineer on his or her behalf.
- (b) The appointment of a scrutineer is to be:
- i) in writing and signed by the candidate; and
 - ii) lodged with the returning officer.
- (c) A scrutineer is entitled to be present at any stage of the ballot.
- (d) A candidate is not entitled to be present at any stage of the ballot.

35. CASUAL VACANCIES

35.1 Casual vacancies

A casual vacancy occurs:

- (a) when an elected member of the Board or a council ceases to hold office, other than by the normal expiry of their term of office; or
- (b) if not all the positions required to be filled at a normal election are filled at that election.

35.2 Recounts and by-elections

- (a) If a casual vacancy occurs, the Board or relevant council, as appropriate, is to determine to:
- i) conduct a by-election; or
 - ii) appoint a person to that position until the next by-election or annual election is held; or
 - iii) leave the position vacant.
- (b) A by-election is to be held in accordance with these rules with such changes as determined by the returning officer.

36. DECLARATION OF RESULT

36.1 A Declaration of results will be made after completion of all ballots listed on the Commission. At the Declaration the returning officer will:

- (a) declare that candidate or those candidates elected; and
- (b) issue a certificate of the election result.

36.2 Publication of election result

As soon as practicable after receiving or issuing a certificate of the election result, the returning officer:

- (a) is to cause a copy of the certificate to be placed on notice boards and the Association's website; and
- (b) is to notify those persons of their election.

37. MISCELLANEOUS

37.1 Disputed returns

An elector or candidate who disputes an election result as specified in the relevant certificate of election issued may, within the thirty day period immediately following the day on which the certificate is published apply to the returning officer for a review of that election result.

37.2 Formal defects not to invalidate elections

- (a) An election is not invalid by reason only:
 - i) of any formal error or defect in any notice, notification, list, declaration, or statement; or
 - ii) that any publication was out of time; or
 - iii) of any delay in holding the election; or
 - iv) of any failure to provide any election material; or
 - v) of any defect, impediment or omission of a merely formal nature.

(b) If an election is deemed to be invalid, any decisions made by the relevant Council or Board are still binding.

37.3 Retention of ballot papers

- (a) The returning officer is to keep the ballot papers from an election at least until the expiry of the thirty day period following the issue of the certificate of election, after which those ballot papers may be disposed of in a secure manner determined by the returning officer.
- (b) Ballot papers kept under rule 37.3(a) are to be retained for the purpose of filling a casual vacancy.

38. RESIGNATION OR RECALL

- (a) For the purposes of these rules, the office of a member of the Board, Council or Subsidiary Council, or of a Committee becomes vacant if the member:
- i) does not comply with their obligations under this constitution and has had a “Vote of No Confidence” passed against them by a majority of the entire membership of the relevant body, that is ratified by the Board;
 - ii) dies;
 - iii) becomes bankrupt or applies to take or takes advantage of any law relating to bankrupt or insolvent debtors or compounds with their creditors, or makes an assignment of their estate for their benefit;
 - iv) is a student but ceases to be a student enrolled in an academic program offered by the University; or
 - v) fails to attend without leave granted by the relevant body or is unjustifiably absent from three consecutive meetings of that body.
- (b) A member who wishes to resign must present a written notification of such to the public officer or the chair of the relevant body. Upon receipt of this written notification the incumbent’s position will be deemed vacant.

PART VI – REGULATIONS AND CONSTITUTION

39. REGULATIONS

- (a) A motion to enact, amend or repeal a Regulation for carrying this constitution into effect, except for the functions and business of the Board, may be initiated by Council, provided that:
- i) Notice, in writing, of motion has been given to the Chairperson of Council, at least ten clear days before the date of the meeting at which such motion is to be discussed;
 - ii) The Chairperson of Council shall give the members of Council at least four clear days notice of motion; and
 - iii) The motion shall be valid only if passed by two thirds of those Present and voting.
- (b) A motion to enact, amend or repeal a Regulation for carrying this constitution into effect where it concerns the functions and business of the Board, may be initiated by the Board, provided that:
- iv) Notice, in writing, of motion has been given to the Chairperson of the Board, at least ten clear days before the date of the meeting at which such motion is to be discussed;

- v) The Chairperson of the Board shall give the members of the Board at least four clear days notice of the motion; and
 - vi) The motion shall be valid only if passed by two thirds of those Present and voting.
- (c) Any dispute or difference concerning the meaning or interpretation of the constitution or the Regulations made hereunder, except in so far as it relates to the powers and functions of the Board and its committees, shall be settled and determined by the Council.
- (d) Any dispute or difference concerning the meaning or interpretation of the constitution or the Regulations made hereunder, in so far as it relates to the powers and functions of the Board and its committees, shall be settled and determined by the Board.

40. CONSTITUTION

- (a) A motion to alter this constitution may originate in either Council or the Board, or on request of one of the Voting Members.
- (b) A motion to alter the constitution originated in either Council or the Board shall be presented in the following manner:
- vii) Notice of motion shall be given to the Deputy President of the Council or to the Secretary of the Board, in writing, at least ten clear days before the date of the meeting at which such motion is to be discussed.
 - viii) The Deputy President of the Council or the Secretary of the Board shall give the members of the Council or the Board at least four clear days notice of the motion, and
 - ix) The motion shall be valid only if passed by two thirds of those present and voting.
- (c) A motion to alter the constitution having been passed by either the Council or the Board as provided in rule 40(b) of this constitution shall be presented to the next meeting of the other body provided that the motion shall be presented to the other body by the Deputy President or the Secretary, following the procedure in rule 40(b) (ii) and (iii) of this constitution.
- (d) A motion to alter the constitution having been passed in accordance with the procedure in rule 40(b) and (c) of this constitution shall be presented to the public officer who shall cause to have a Special General Meeting called to propose the alteration of the constitution. To be carried a constitutional amendment requires both Voting Members to attend the Special General Meeting and vote unanimously in its favour. The Voting Members shall act in good faith when voting on a constitutional amendment and shall not unreasonably withhold their approval of the motion to alter the constitution.

- (e) In the event that there is a dispute between the Voting Members as to whether or not the approval of one Voting Member has been unreasonably withheld such dispute shall be determined in accordance with the arbitration process set out in rule 9(m).
- (f) The public officer of the Association shall, within one month after any alteration of the constitution of the Association; lodge with the Registrar notice of the alteration, a copy of any instrument evidencing the alteration, and a statutory declaration made by the public officer declaring that the alteration is authorised, and was made in the manner provided by the rules of the Association.
- (g) A copy of the constitution must be available to any student who requests it.
